Have you completed the program?

Congratulations!

If you have completed our Software Engineering Virtual Experience, well done! This is a truly incredible achievement.

We hope that throughout the Virtual Experience, you have gained some valuable practical experience and got a glimpse into the work that JPMorgan Chase Software Engineers get involved in.

After completing the program, download your personalized completion certificate and use this experience on your CV and LinkedIn.

Next steps after completing the Virtual Experience

We're actively searching for the next generation JPMorgan Chase technologists - if you've taken the time to participate in our Software Engineering Virtual Experience, then we want to speak with you!

Those students that complete the following steps, and are eligible to work in the US or UK will be contacted by a JPMorgan Chase recruiter to discuss opportunities available. Your current and future applications to JPMorgan Chase programs will also be prioritized for review and follow up.

You need to:

- Complete at least tasks 1-3 of this program
- Take the completion survey [link]
- Upload your CV
- Update your working rights information
- Ensure you have opted in to being contacted by JPMorgan Chase

We encourage all students to use this experience on their CV and LinkedIn, and remember to download and share your personalized completion certificate.
